

Summer 2021 Training - Peer Educator Do's and Don'ts

ACCESS CENTER

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Colorado State University

Overview

- Professional Ethics
 - Professional responsibility
 - What do I wear?
 - Space set up
- Boundary Setting
 - Working with teenagers and minors
- Online Behavior Policies

Professional Ethics

-Responsibility

- Congrats you are officially an CSU and Access Center Employee!
- This means you represent these programs inside and outside workspaces.
- Be aware of how you “show up” in spaces.

- Picture this....
- Be comfortable AND professional
- Keep it simple – tshirts, polos, blouse. ect.
- Please have jeans on if you plan to stand!
- Know your Audience
- Have fun with it!

Space Set Up

Tips

- If possible, have a designated space to use
- Use a desk or table, something that will keep your video still
- Sitting in a chair, with no distractions in your background
- Well lit and quite area

What to Avoid

- Do not be on your bed.
- Be aware of what is being shown in your background
- Blur out your background if needed

me waking up 30 seconds before my zoom meetings every morning

Setting Boundaries

Authenticity

Set Expectations Early

Be Friendly Not Friends

Position Of Power

Role Modeling

Setting Boundaries

Do not give out personal phone number

Never be alone with a student

Do not add students on social media

Avoid responding to students outside of workday

Be aware of what's happening in your space

Have students help you create this space

Online Behavior Policies

What? Expectations and guidelines used to create a brave space for students. These will be specific for each individual program.

Why? All of these “rules” have purpose behind them and help use create an inclusive spaces for students, along with keeping appropriate boundaries.

Your Role: Enforce these rules when needed, consistency across the team, have ownership you space and add anything you feel is needed.

THANK YOU!

THE DREAM TEAM

