

The Access Center
College Access Unit
Upward Bound '77 Academic Instructor

The Upward Bound program at Colorado State University is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education. The program is designed to help participants generate the academic skills and motivation necessary for success in post-secondary education. Participants are talented high school students who come from low-income backgrounds where neither parent has earned a bachelor's degree. These students face systemic disadvantages by reason of socio-economic circumstances, lack of educational access, and other barriers.

For six weeks, Upward Bound provides an intensive summer residential program on the Colorado State University campus. Approximately 50 participants will receive: (1) instruction in composition, literature, world languages, mathematics, ACT/SAT Preparation and laboratory science, (2) advising in the areas of educational and career opportunities, and (3) exposure to enrichment activities designed to promote personal and social growth.

The Upward Bound Academic Instructor is a part-time Upward Bound staff member within the College Access Unit of the Access Center. Instructors develop a class curriculum, instruct students in one of the four required content areas (language arts, laboratory science, mathematics, and world language), facilitate tutoring and activities, and assist in supporting the Access Center Mission: "consistent with Colorado State University's land grant mission to make education accessible to all persons and groups, the Access Center develops the talents of those who have been historically underrepresented in postsecondary education (first generation, low-income, ethnically and racially diverse, and non-traditionally aged). By utilizing effective practices, we provide quality services to communities, individuals and institutions resulting in student success and exemplary programs guided by an ethic of community and project accountability."

For this environment to develop, UB instructors must make healthy connections with the student participants, hold all students accountable to Upward Bound behavior expectations, support students through tutoring, and facilitate activities outside the classroom with students.
